SAYS WIFE FORCED HIS OWN CHILDREN TO SMUT HIS NAME

L. C. Thurman Presents Indictments Against Himself in Unique Plea for Divorce, Hitting Wife and Her Mother

CHILDREN TESTIFIED FATHER TO GRAND JURY

Declares Mother-in-Law Conspired With His Wife to Make Away With His Property While He Was in Jail

A first divorce verdict was granted L. C. Thurman Thursday morning by Judge W. B. Ellis, division of the superior court, after he had related one of the most unusual of the many court stories told the divorce jury this week.

Thurman's attorney, Frank Harrell, introduced in evidence four bills of indictment, charging felonies of larceny, conspiracy, and the latter charged his daughters to go before the grand jury that returned the indictments. All four of the cases have been nolle prossed, and Thurman declared that the court has action only after it has been shown that his daughters agreed seven and one-half years, had been induced by his wife to make false charges against him.

Thurman declared that the object of his wife and mother-in-law in promoting the larceny conspiracy was to gain possession of his real property and flee to Texas with it, where he languished in jail. He failed in this object, he asserted, when he made good on his arrest. Now he has possession of his real property, he said, and told the terrible tale about him and his mother-in-law.

ATLANTIAN STRIVES AGAINST ATLANTIAN IN N. Y. POLITICS

Bob Adamson and Joe Johnson, Managing Rivals in Gotham Mayorality Race, Are Former Atlanta Men

RIVAL MANAGERS WERE FORMERLY FOR GAYNOR

Both Adamson and Johnson Were Gaynor Appointees, but at His Death They Separated to Opposite Issues

Whoever is elected mayor of New York—McCall or Mitchell—an Atlantian will reap a large share of the glory for the victory. For in this contest Bob Adamson, in charge of the Fusion campaign, is pitted against Joe Johnson, managing the Tammany forces. Bob and Joe are Georgians, and both formerly Atlantian newspapermen. Just now Mr. Adamson is secretary to the mayor of New York, and Mr. Johnson is fire commissioner of the great city. The campaign now making is one of the few times that the Atlantians have differed as rivals in New York City politics.

When William A. Gaynor was elected mayor one of his first acts was to appoint Mr. Adamson as his private secretary. A short time thereafter he named Mr. Johnson as fire commissioner. Soon, however, the Fusionists, supporting John Purse Mitchell, induced Mr. Adamson to manage the Fusion campaign, following which Tammany called Mr. Johnson a member of the McCall executive committee, charged with the responsibility of putting over another Tammany mayor.

Mr. Johnson is well known in Atlanta, where he lived for many years. He formerly was city editor of the Atlanta Journal and after going to New York engaged in the newspaper business for several years before breaking into politics.

Mr. Adamson is also well known in Atlanta, where he lived for many years. He formerly was city editor of the Atlanta Journal and after going to New York engaged in the newspaper business for several years before breaking into politics.

JUDGE ROAN TESTS SOLICITOR HE WILL POSTPONE HEARING

Dorsey Notified That Presence Will Be Waived Saturday, Date for New Hearing on Frank New Trial Motion

HEARING DATE LIKELY TO BE SATURDAY WEEK

In Meantime Machinery Is Clogged in Superior Courts of Two Circuits and in Court of Appeals

Judge L. S. Roan, of the Stone Mountain circuit, on Thursday notified Solicitor General Hugh M. Dorsey that he would be granted the additional time needed to prepare his motion for a new trial for Leo M. Frank, convicted of the murder of Mary Phagan.

Solicitor Dorsey is now at Valdosta, and Judge Roan notified him that the court for the day would be adjourned.

Roan is generally expected to be ready with his answer by Saturday week, when possibly the motion will be argued.

The effect of the Frank delay on the judicial situation is still an open question. The superior courts of two circuits and the court of appeals are all awaiting action in the Frank case.

The next Monday a number of cases are set for argument before the court of appeals. If Judge Ben H. Hill sits with his colleagues on those cases, it may be a number of weeks before the decisions are rendered, and that would delay his taking his place in the Stone Mountain circuit.

If Judge Hill resigns and Judge Roan takes his place in the court of appeals, then the latter will be disqualified to pass on the Frank motion.

In the meantime the courts throughout the Stone Mountain circuit are getting behind with their business. Solicitor Dorsey is not alone among the judges in being behind for the reason that in every case where he draws a bill of indictment, he will be disqualified as a judge when he succeeds to Judge Roan's place.

IN SESSION IN ATLANTA CIRCUIT. Judge Roan does not want to hear any cases now pending in the Stone Mountain circuit, but he is not alone among the judges in being behind for the reason that in every case where he draws a bill of indictment, he will be disqualified as a judge when he succeeds to Judge Roan's place.

The judges themselves profess not to know what course will be pursued, but the condition of overcrowding is more than a little embarrassing. For it will take some time to hear the arguments in it.

SCHOOLS NOT BAD AS PICTURED—WOODWARD

Mayor Believes by Shifting Pupils Crowding Will Be Relieved

Before starting from city hall Thursday morning on a tour of inspection to the schools in the city, the situation, as indicated by The Journal's figures, is just what it was before. It was before I saw the figures. It took me as long as it took me to see the figures. It was before I saw the figures. It took me as long as it took me to see the figures.

In other words, he said, he believed the condition of overcrowding was more than a little embarrassing. For it will take some time to hear the arguments in it.

The Journal's figures, said the mayor, gave me more information than I think I would have been able to get from a tour of inspection, unless I went to every school house in the city. The situation, as indicated by The Journal's figures, is just what it was before. It was before I saw the figures. It took me as long as it took me to see the figures.

SATURDAY'S "WORK DAY" FOR METHODIST ORPHANS

Georgia Church Will Celebrate "Orphans' Rally Day" Next Sunday

The annual "work day" for the orphans of the Methodist home in Decatur occurs Saturday and all good Methodists throughout the state as well as any others who care to help, have been invited to give to the orphans their work of the proceeds for that one day. The invitation has been made public by the board of trustees of the home, through its secretary, W. E. McCalla.

There will be "Orphans' Rally Day" Sunday, a number of Atlanta churches and in many other churches in Georgia. Appropriate exercises will be held in the churches and the preachers' services will dwell upon the sentiment of the day.

The board of trustees of the Decatur orphanage has with the increase of the "work day" this year may set as much as $25,000. "Work day" was inaugurated in 1901, when $500 was secured. Last year the income was $10,000. There are 130 children in the Decatur orphanage home, the number increasing at times to as many as 250. Since the home was established it has cared for 2,500 children. The monthly expense runs from $1,600 to $2,000. The home was established in 1860, about ten years ago by Dr. Jesse Horing. In 1871 the orphanage home was burned and the institution was reestablished in Decatur. The plant now consists of fifteen buildings on a farm of 225 acres.

What Anne Rutten-house Says

PARIS.—If transparent brown shows your conservative mind, then think you are not underclothes. This is the last edge of fashion today. The last edge of fashion today is really a reason against them, if one stops to think. The muslin of the last two years has been as sheer as it could be made. This has been the case with everything except a cloth skirt, but they are made of lace and from five to ten yards of material are added to the weight of the clothes.

I wonder what stand the doctors have taken about this. They have said that these clothes cause indigestion, that they are a source of weakness, that they are a source of disease, that they are a source of death. They have said that they are a source of weakness, that they are a source of disease, that they are a source of death.

Well, the new standard must be pretty near this three pounds measure. When we consider that our modern clothes weigh the equivalent of a ton and the new dress is made of the thinnest kind of material, that the number of yards of fabric is reduced, the hats have lost their weight, the stockings are made of cotton, the shoes are made of leather, the gloves are made of leather, the coats are made of leather, the trousers are made of leather, the undershirts are made of cotton, the undershirts are made of cotton, the undershirts are made of cotton.

PHYSICIANS PUZZLED BY FRACTURE TO BOY'S LEG

An X-ray photograph of the broken left leg of Fred Holder, while the mother boy who was run over by a city sanitary wagon Wednesday, was taken Thursday morning by surgeons at Grady hospital. They state that the fracture is peculiar. They say that the boy is in a serious condition.

Frank Watson, the negro driver of the sanitary wagon which ran over the boy, is being held by the police.

TO CLOSE LAST OFFICE OF GULF DEPARTMENT

Capt. Ryan Expects to Leave Atlanta About 15th of Month

With the closing of the quartermaster's department of the eastern division, United States army, with headquarters in the Candler building, the last part of the old department of the Gulf will have passed out of existence in Atlanta.

Captain John J. Ryan, who has been in charge of the office since it was located here over two years ago, has been ordered to Fort Riley, Kan., where his work there is completed and his home to do by October 15, or shortly after.

When the Gulf department was moved from here to make way for the Second brigade of the first division under command of Brigadier General Robert K. Evans, it was made a part of the eastern division of the army, located at Governor's Island, N. Y. The quartermaster department, however, was not abolished at that time but continued in force until all of the work connected with it was completed. Captain Ryan stated to a Journal reporter Wednesday morning that he fully expected to close up the office by the middle of this month and between October 20 and 25, would join the brigade post at Fort Riley.

Of the three assistants in the department two are detailed to Texas City and the other to the Philippines.

A. L. RUTHVEN'S BOND REMAINS AT $10,000

The United States circuit court of appeals Thursday refused to order a reduction in the bond of Alfred L. Ruthven, who is now serving a three-year term in the federal prison for fraudulent use of the mails.

Ruthven was convicted several months ago in the district court of New Orleans, and his bond was fixed at $10,000 pending an appeal.

He claimed that the bond was fixed as a supersedeas after his conviction, but the court of appeals held that the lower court fixing bond for any sum to act as a supersedeas.

FARM DEMONSTRATORS MEET IN ATLANTA

Over twenty agents of the Farmers' Cooperative Demonstration Work of Georgia met in executive session in the assembly hall of the chamber of commerce Thursday morning for the beginning of a three-day session to make reports on the work of the past year and plan for the work of the future.

The meeting was called to order at 10:30 o'clock by J. Paul Campbell, state agent of the Boys' Corn Club, and the morning session was spent in hearing reports of the different agents in the north Georgia territory.

The Express Man Was Very Generous This Morning With His Big Boxes of New Suits

Many new suits arrived this morning, doubtless many will arrive tomorrow morning, fresh recruits to take the places of others that have gone to new owners.

It is just this constant inflow of suits that makes the Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBose Co. suit section such an interesting spot. Always something new and delightfully different from the ordinary.

You should see those that came in this morning! NOVELTIES!

Styles that were coined as lately as two weeks ago in distant Paris and all stamped with the distinction that only SUIT WIZARDS seem able to effect.

They are styles Atlanta women are going to like and wear--more numerous and varied than can be told in an advertisement--but when the eyes of women see how they are fashioned, see the lines and very smart trimmings, sashes, vests, velvets, Oriental embroideries and the like--well the suit question will be answered!

It Seems There Is Always a Crowd in the Neckwear Section

The first cause is doubtless woman's instinctive "love" for such dainty, lacy bits. She seeks them out at once.

The secondary cause is that this neckwear section requires this "love." There are no disappointments for the crowds of women who come.

New things are constantly arriving--as fast as novelties are evolved.

And right now--

Medici Styles, fuchsia, collars, ruffs, of net and chiffon and embroidery. The price range tells the variety. 50c to $5.00.

Maline and Net Ruffs, soft, cloudy effects; black, white, and black and white; very chic. $2.50 to $5.00.

Collar and Cuff Sets in infinite variety; hand-embroidered nets, Venise lace, and net and lace combinations; fluffy, airy--daintiness itself. 50c to $5.00.

Bulgarian Collars, bold splashes of colors, such as Paris alone would dare--but a world of women will wear; $1.50 to $5.00.

PICKPOCKETS AT WORK IN ATLANTA CROWDS

Police Believe Number of Sly Thieves Have Stopped Off in Atlanta

Pickpockets are at work among the crowds in Atlanta, say the police, and a determined effort is being made to catch them. The police believe the thieves have come from somewhere else and have stopped off in Atlanta just long enough to help themselves to a few good things.

M. R. Manning, of 449 Spring street, has reported the loss of $125 cash and two checks for a total of $450. He says his pockets were picked Wednesday afternoon somewhere downtown.

J. R. Chinn, of Woodberry, Ga., lost a $100 check Wednesday afternoon. He believes it was cut off somewhere downtown.

COLONEL TATE'S FUNERAL SUNDAY AT WEST VIEW

The body of Colonel James E. Tate, the aged Georgian whose death occurred at the New Grand hotel in New York City on Monday last, will be brought to Atlanta Friday morning at 3 o'clock and will be removed to Tate's chapel.

The funeral will be held there Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, and the interment will be in West View.

Colonel Tate was sixty-five years of age, and is survived by one sister, Mrs. F. E. Wagner, of this city; three nieces, Mrs. J. D. Hanson, Mrs. Bernard Mason and Mrs. Victoria Williams, and three nephews, W. F. and James Tate Williams, and N. B. Williams, of West Point, Ga.

Mrs. Kate Beynon Dead

Mrs. A. Mason Beynon, fifty-three, died at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. A. Mason Beynon, Monday night at noon. Besides Mrs. Mason she was survived by three sons, Mr. A. Mason Beynon, Mr. J. D. Beynon, and Mr. J. D. Beynon.

Many new suits arrived this morning, doubtless many will arrive tomorrow morning, fresh recruits to take the places of others that have gone to new owners.

It is just this constant inflow of suits that makes the Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBose Co. suit section such an interesting spot. Always something new and delightfully different from the ordinary.

CLOSE CALL FOR MANY IN BOARDING HOUSE FIRE

Fireman Saves Self When Roof Falls by Grabbing Hot Gas Pipe

Awakened to find the roof blazing above their heads about 3 o'clock Thursday morning, the occupants of the boarding house of Mrs. Sarah Freeman, at No. 291 East Hunter street, barely had time to reach the street before the roof fell in.

Mrs. O. McAllister, a daughter of Mrs. Freeman, first discovered the fire, when she was aroused by the crackling of the flames on the roof. She awoke her husband, and together they spread the alarm through the building. The room occupied as the last boarder reached the street.

James Tamm, a fireman at No. 19, was fighting the fire in the attic when the ceiling gave way under him. He kept himself from falling by grasping the gas pipe.

The roof was destroyed, and the second floor badly damaged by smoke and water. The adjoining houses were scorched by the heat.

PASSENGER SHOTS
CONDUCTOR IN ARM

Squabble Started on River Car
Line Because Conductor
Didn't Stop

Passengers on an outboard river car were thrown into a panic Wednesday night when an unidentified man drew his revolver and fired a shot at the conductor. The assailant then jumped from the car which was running at full speed and disappeared into the darkness.

According to eye-witnesses, the car had traveled past Addy station when a man arose from his seat and went to the rear platform where the conductor was standing. He is said to have remonstrated with Dodson for not stopping at this station, who replied that he had received no signal. The man, who apparently had been drinking, then attacked the conductor and a fight ensued. In the midst of the melee the passenger drew a pistol and fired a bullet wound in his arm near his shoulder and the stranger jumped to the ground.

At the Atlanta hospital, where the wounded man was carried, it was ascertained that his injuries were more painful than serious. The bullet had grazed his way through the flesh. He was able to walk home on Thursday morning.

Shortly before midnight County Police Whitfield arrested a man named Louis Cole, of Addy station, on suspicion. He was locked up at police station, but denies any knowledge of the affair. The prisoner is said to fit the description witnesses gave of the man who did the shooting.

Raoul Foundation Waging
Busy Fight on Tuberculosis

The trustees of the Raoul foundation are taking active steps to carry out the purposes of the late Dr. Raoul. From Van Hise, of New York, representing the National Tuberculosis Association, is now in Atlanta and actively co-operating with the trustees in the organization of the work in Georgia.

The foundation had been appointed state agent for Georgia for the sale of the Red Cross seal stamps for the issue of 1913, and Bernard Sutter, who has been appointed by the trustees as state chairman for the campaign, is now arranging for such a vigorous prosecution of the work as will awaken the people in every section of the state to the importance of this work which is now nationwide.

MADDOX'S SLAYER NOT CAUGHT AT ROCHELLE

The report that the slayer of W. W. Maddox at Fitzgerald, Ga., had been caught at Rochelle, Ga., is denied by a telegram received Wednesday from W. A. Fountain, sheriff of Ben Hill county. The sheriff wishes this error to be corrected, in order that a diligent search for the murderer will still be kept up. Mr. Maddox was foully murdered over a week ago at an ice plant in Fitzgerald, where he was employed as night engineer. Robbery was the motive of the crime.

CASH DRAWER ROBBED
BY NEGROES WEDNESDAY

On the pretense of buying a pair of shoes, two negroes robbed the cash drawer of the Davis shoe company, 172 South McDaniel street, at noon Wednesday. One negro engaged the attention of the clerk, saying that he wanted to buy a pair of shoes. The other negro in the meantime got to the cash drawer, which was found empty after they had left. The police were notified, and are at work on the case.

BEAVERS MAKES WAR ON TRAFFIC OBSTRUCTIONS

Issues Order for Policemen to Require Lumber and Debris Removed

Police Chief Beavers Wednesday afternoon started a crusade against obstructions to traffic by issuing an order to the men of the evening watch to serve notice on all persons having lumber, debris, etc., piled in the street to move the same at once, and to make cases in the recorder's court for failure thereof.

The order was the result of a conference between the chief and Councilman Orville H. Hall, chairman of the street committee of council, who called the former's attention to the fact that traffic in the very heart of the city is seriously hampered, in many cases by obstructions which are unnecessary. It used to be the city law that contractors must obtain permits from council before erecting barriers on the streets. A year or so ago that law was changed in the interest of the contractors. The council meetings, obtain permits by the joint consent of the mayor, the chairman of the street committee and the chief of construction.

Councilman Hall is now preparing to make a fight in council to return to the law, because it seems to him that the contractors are abusing the privilege which council granted them, after erecting their barriers and then applying for the permits. The councilman believes there is plenty of time for contractors to get their permits first, and erect the barriers afterward.

Asked 10 Days in Cell
To Cure His Thirst;
24 Hours Enough

"I want to be locked up. I want you to keep me locked up for ten days so I can get cold sober and then go out and land me a job," said a young man of good appearance at the sergeant's office in police headquarters, Wednesday afternoon.

He introduced himself as H. Holliman, aged twenty-four of Miami, Fla. He said that he had come to Atlanta for work several weeks ago and that he brought some money with him. He found the allurements of the locker clubs greater than he could stand he said. He was turned down every time he asked for a job because he looked like a loose fighter. He wanted to be shut away from liquor. The police were rather doubtful about it because he talked coherently enough and seemed a nice sort. In the end they did lock him in the cells, however. They searched his pockets as is usual with all prisoners and found two pint flasks of whiskey.

Thursday morning after hardly more than twelve hours in the cells the young man announced himself cured and said he wanted to get out. The full ten days term was not expected to be believed. The police expected to let him out during the afternoon.

SINGING CONVENTION
WILL MEET ON FRIDAY

Contest for Banner Will Take Place in Auditorium—Everyone Invited

A singing contest, to which the public is extended a cordial invitation, will be held by the Atlanta Union Singing convention in the auditorium Friday night, beginning at 8 o'clock.

The following choir will enter the contest for the banner: Lakewood Heights Methodist, Ponder Avenue Baptist, Western Heights Baptist, Nelly Dodd Methodist (also known as Happy Fifty), West Park Baptist, Oakhurst Baptist, Mount Zion Baptist and Cooper Street Baptist. The banner was won last year by the Lakewood Heights Methodist choir.

On Sunday, October 12, the convention will hold all day singing at the Cooper Street Baptist church, when a big spread dinner will be served at the noon hour. All are invited.

WOOD NOT RUNNING FOR JOB ON NEW BENCH

Jesse M. Wood, member of the law firm of Napier, Wright & Wood, and a city councilman, denied that he is a candidate for a seat on the municipal court, which will be created at the first of the year.

Some days ago The Journal published the statement that Mr. Wood was being mentioned for one of the five positions.

"While this is an honor not to be despised," says Mr. Wood, "I am not now and have not been a candidate for appointment to one of these judgeships. Quite a number of my friends have spoken to me about it, and I make this statement in order that they and the public may understand that I am not a candidate."

It is understood that the recommendation to the governor of the judges of the superior court for the places on the new court bench, will be made soon after Judge Ben H. Hill takes his seat with the present judges of the Atlanta circuit.

Receiver Asked

Creditors of the D. W. Johnson company have filed bankruptcy proceedings in the United States court and have asked for the appointment of a receiver. The liabilities to the three creditors who instituted the proceedings amount to $149,167. The receiver will be appointed Monday.

LUELLE POSTOFFICE
HAS BEEN ROBBED

On receipt of a telegram announcing that the postoffice at Luella, Ga., has been robbed, H. E. Barry, chief of inspectors, Thursday detailed a man down to investigate. Luella is a fourth-class office under D. G. Neal, postmaster.

The postmaster's telegram gave no detail of the robbery.
